

I want to oppose the weakening of the Indiana Law prohibiting Banks from calling customers to solicit more business. My family and I enjoy the protection from such intrusions into my personal time the law affords. If I want to increase or transfer my business from bank to bank, I know how to do that on my own.